233 Clayton Street
Denver, CO.

Clayton believes the more interested you are, the more interesting you are.

Intentionally cultivated community, born from the collision of arts, local culture, entrepreneurial endeavors and living a more meaningful and impactful life. Our community values character over capital.

Surrounded by like-minded individuals in a space that encourages and nurtures our instincts to thrive and grow, we progress at Clayton. We are a community united by our commitment to best represent the remarkable locale of Denver – and continuously evolve it.

Here, we convene, converse and celebrate. We know there is a science to getting the room just right. A good feeling you get as soon as you walk through the front door, inviting you to experience something new, exciting, and utterly compelling. At Clayton, we're inspired and driven by our defining pillars –

BE CURIOUS.
BE FUN.
BE AUTHENTIC.
BE GENEROUS.
BE INCLUSIVE.

Clayton's Commitment to Opportunity, Equity and Inclusion

At Clayton, Opportunity, Equity, and Inclusion (OEI) is at the forefront of the community we are creating. Clayton's membership is comprised of individuals who demonstrate a shared commitment to optimizing Social, Business, and Creative connections, opportunities, experiences and community contributions with inclusion across race, gender, sexuality, age, ability, and industry.

We have a zero-tolerance policy for racism, sexism, ageism, homophobia, transphobia, bullying and any other behavior that fails to honor and respect each and every person within the Clayton community, their individuality, and personhood.

Clayton's environment is grounded in safety, familiarity and comfort, where people can bring their most authentic selves and foster infectious, impactful energy. We will create and sustain inviting spaces where all feel safe to engage in respectful and enlightening experiences.

Clayton Contributes Fund (CCF) is the philanthropic arm of Clayton, created in effort to assist the underserved and underrepresented communities of Denver.

Established as a 501(3)c, CCF provides a sustaining and regenerating fund to invest in the Denver community through causes championed by our Members and vetted by the CCF board. Clayton Contributes Fund identifies, evaluates, collaborates with local OEI-focused organizations and causes whose mission and values align with those of Clayton to affect positive change.
